Village Board and Willowdale Dairy Disagree on Bill

Will Meet Again to Discuss Sewage Disposal Rate For Industry

There's a hundred dollars' difference in the amount the village board of trustees believes the Willowdale dairy should pay for the service of its sewage and the amount the dairy believes it ought to pay. The village wants $400 a year and the dairy wants to pay no more than $300.

This was as close as the board and the dairy representatives got in their discussion during the special meeting of the village board Tuesday evening.

In addition, the Willowdale company is objecting to making the bill retroactive to April 1, 1948 when the ordinance was passed charging users of the sewer for the service.

Sam Lerner, part owner of the Willowdale plant, and his attorney, Arthur Seelig of Chicago, appeared before the board in protesting the bill presented the company earlier in the month.

Attorney Seelig attacked the report of the village engineer David Miller as mathematically incorrect and erroneous in its approach. He charged that the two per cent loss of butter fat was not lost down the drain as Miller intimated in arriving at the rate of bacteria count, but said that the loss could be in the over mixture of the fat in the milk sold.

Attacks Basis of Estimate

He attacked other approaches Miller made in estimating the amount of BOD content of his dairy's sewage, saying that Miller took samples of the volume on a day when two days' bottling was undertaken, and then said Miller's mathematics was wrong when he included the share of the dairy's waste in the village's population output rather than adding it to, which would reduce the dairy's share considerably.

The village has estimated that on the basis of the bacteria content of the dairy's sewage its service is equivalent to 471 persons. The attorney for the dairy estimates it as less than 236 persons. Miller was unable to be present to defend his figures.

The trustees believe that $100 a quarter is a fair amount in view of the fact that the sewage supplied by the dairy is the most difficult for the disposal plant to "digest." They say that any just figure arrived at surely should be made retroactive for the service already has been received.

Plant Up to Capacity

The trustees said that the new sewage disposal plant already is up to capacity.

Seelig didn't get very far in his comment that elsewhere the company's dairy wasn't charged for the service. They rather had in mind the situation at Grayslake where an industry is having to provide its own system at big expense, and are willing that the dairy here should do the same.

The board is planning another meeting with the dairy representatives after consulting their engineer further.

Local Resident Took the Idea "Go Jump in the Lake" Literally: It Cooled Him Off

If your hot temper gets the best of you, go jump in the lake, it will cool you off quickly.

This was what James Ducaman of this village did recently according to sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Ducaman told the officers she and her husband and a friend, Russell Wilson, were walking home from a party near Cedar lake when they got in an argument and when Wilson tried to intercede, her husband became so infuriated that he ran to the lake and plunged in.

When in the darkness they couldn't see him and he did not answer their calls, they started walking to Antioch to get help in finding his body. On the way they sighted Ducaman running at top speed down the highway. They caught him and took him home.

He admitted to the officers he had been drinking and was sorry he caused the trouble.

C. J. ROESCHLEIN HAS HEART ATTACK WED.

The Antioch Rescue squad was called to the home of C. J. Roeschlein, Channel Lake, on Wednesday when Mr. Roeschlein suffered a heart attack at noon. Mr. Roeschlein was alone at the time, and managed to crawl to the telephone to summon Ed Vos, who in turn summoned the Antioch Rescue squad.

The squad administered first aid and oxygen, and he was reported to be in fair condition today, although members of the squad are still on duty administering oxygen.

Squad Called to Wadsworth

A call yesterday afternoon took the squad to Wadsworth where E. Capitina, driver of a Curtiss Candy truck, had had a fainting spell and fallen, injuring his leg. The attack was first thought to have been a heart attack, but upon examination by a physician, was diagnosed as not dangerous.

Scout House Fund Tops $1,000; Drive to End on Nov. 15; Directors Meet

Fiscal Year of Organization Changed to March, Terms Staggered

The postponed annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Leila J. Anderson Foundation was held at the First National bank on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25. William Schroeder, president, presided. Edward C. Jacobs, attorney for the foundation attended as a legal adviser.

Since the fiscal year of the corporation coincides with the calendar year, it was voted that in the future the annual meeting should be held on the fourth Tuesday of March; in order to facilitate the auditing of the treasurer's books and the closing of the other necessary business of the year.

The by-laws provide for six board members to serve three years each; and a president to serve one year. The board members are elected by organizations of the community; the president is to be William Schroeder or someone nominated by him or his successor. This is in accordance with the wishes of the late C. K. Anderson.

So that the election of members may be staggered and two elected each year it was decided by lot that the Business and Professional Woman's club and the Boy Scouts should each have one year terms, the Girl Scouts and the Lions club each two year terms and the Woman's club and the American Legion each three year terms.

Donations Asked

The secretary reported that up to date $1,005.00 has been received in the drive for funds.

"If you have not yet donated and feel that you would like to have a part in the upkeep of this worthwhile center your contribution would be appreciated," a spokesman for the organization said. "All Scout Troops use the building free of charge; to other groups there is a rental fee."

Nov. 15 has been set for the closing date for the drive. Two checks have been received the past week, one from the Channel Lake Community club, and the other from Mayor Murrill Cunningham.

The public has been invited to stop in at the Scout home and see the marvelous display of arrow heads loaned by Lawrence Hoffman.

A lengthy discussion and resume of the past year's work was conducted. Mr. Schroeder thanked the board members for their co-operation with him. He said that since this has been a new project to the community much had to be learned by experience, nevertheless all in all it has been a successful year due in most part to the splendid support given the Foundation by the people of the village and surrounding territory.

Prowler Enters Setcoff Cottage, Prepares Meal, Leaves Dirty Dishes

John Setcoff, Chicago, might have forgiven the person who broke into his Grass Lake summer home recently and fried for himself a batch of pancakes, but when he left without washing the dishes, he was plain mad.

Setcoff told sheriff's deputies Monday that it was the third time the cottage had been entered. The intruder smashed a pane of glass, reached in and unlocked the door, admitting himself to the sun porch. The same method was used in getting into the living room.

Besides pancakes the person helped himself to some home-made preserves, bread and coffee. None of the beds was mussed, but the burglar may have used the living room couch. Setcoff said he hadn't been in the cottage for two weeks.

Antioch to Play Grant There Saturday Night; Beat Palatine 12 to 7

After continuing in the victory column through a 1 to 7 defeat of Palatine here in the Homecoming game Friday night, the Antioch High school football team will play its most crucial game of the season at Ingleside Saturday night against their bitterest rivals, Grant Township High.

The neighboring school enjoys at present the second position in the Northwest conference with but one defeat this season making them the favorites, but when the Sequoits play Grant anything can happen and usually does.

The game originally scheduled for Friday night will be played on the following evening at the request of Grant.

Coach Kruzan is hoping that the intensity of scrimmage between the varsity and the scrubs doesn't turn up any injuries which might mar the strength of his team in Saturday's game. If the Sequoits win they have a chance to tie Grant at the close of the season in the conference standing.

Repeat 1948 Victory

Friday's game was almost a repetition of last year's game with Palatine in which Antioch won 13 to 7. The Sequoits played good ball during the first half, but bogged down in the second.

A long run by Gene Wiczorek, right halfback, to the one yard line on the return of a punt in the first quarter set the stage for Antioch's first touchdown. Pete Poulos carried the ball over.

The second touchdown was made on a pass from "Buzz" Haviland to Irving Buchta. Bob Wilton and Mel Stillson at end stopped all attempted sweeps by the Palatine backs.

Palatine scored in the third period through a 60-yard drive from their own 40-yard line, making the touchdown in eight plays. The visitors converted whereas Antioch made no points after touchdown. Antioch made 155 yards by pushing and 40 on passes in contrast to Palatine's total of 80 yards.

Wilton, the halfback suffered a sprained ankle in the game and was not in practice this week.

Schedule Is Changed

A corrected schedule for the rest of the season showing several changes has been issued as follows:

Friday afternoon—Northbrook at Wauconda. Saturday evening: Ela at Palatine; Barrington at Bensenville.

Friday, Nov. 4—Afternoon—Antioch at Ela; Bensenville at Wauconda; evening—Palatine at Northbrook.

Saturday, Nov. 5—Afternoon—Grant at Barrington.

The standing of the schools in the conference is:

	Won	Lost	Pts.	Opp.
Barrington	5	0	191	0
Grant	4	1	45	26
Bensenville	2	2	14	31
Ela	2	2	57	57
Palatine	2	3	51	55
Antioch	2	3	49	52
Northbrook	2	3	26	51
Wauconda	0	5	7	168

He was making good progress for a place when the tire went down. He will participate in the race next Sunday.

Arrangements Completed For Antioch News and Theatre Halloween Party

Parade of Costumed Grade School Children to Start at 6:30

Witches, ghosts, cowboys, story-book characters and all kinds of people will pass through downtown Main st. Monday evening as grade school children in costume participate in the Antioch News-Antioch Theatre Halloween parade and party.

It is estimated that more than 500 Antioch school and pre-school youngsters will be in line as they move from the Antioch grade school at 6:30 p. m. to the theatre for the judging of costumes, presentation of prizes, and the motion picture show itself.

How the committee in charge will be able to seat all of them in a theatre that has but a little more than 400 seats is a problem that hasn't been solved as yet, Richard Whitacre, school principal in charge said.

The pre-school children followed by the kindergarten children will be first in the line of march followed by the older children in succession of grades with the eighth grade coming last.

After they have all entered the theatre, the candidates for the prizes will be called to the stage in the same order with girls and boys each having their own group competition. Forty regular prizes and two grand prizes will be given.

The judges will be Mrs. I. B. Elms, Mrs. Joe Horton, and Mrs. W. A. Biron who have had previous experience.

Fred Swanson, owner of the theatre, will be master of ceremonies. He has always been able to conduct the contest with fairness and dispatch.

The Antioch News and the theatre have shared in the expense of this Halloween event for 15 years.

Homecoming Success; Football Team Wins; Large Crowd at Dance

Antioch High School's homecoming this year was a big success from every standpoint.

From the start of the parade Thursday evening until the last strains of the orchestra at the dance Friday night the program was enthusiastically carried out as planned.

The parade was a good one with good floats. The Boy Scouts won first prize; the Future Homemakers of America, second prize; and the A-Club third.

After the parade the pep session bonfire and snake dance gave members of the football team to understand that the student body was backing them to the limit.

With this feeling the Sequoits turned in a victory over Palatine, 12-7 the following night. The crowd at the game was one of the largest of the season. Two hundred and eighty persons remained for the dancing to the music of Art Smojkal's orchestra.

During intermission the formal crowning of Miss Ramae Beedle, senior, as Homecoming Queen took place. She was crowned by Peter Poulos, captain of the football team. Her attendants were Joyce Strametz, senior; Marilyn Wallace, junior; Jill Mahoney, sophomore; and Mary Fields, freshman.

Inspect Other High Schools

Principal T. R. Birkhead and Hans Von Holwede of the Antioch Township High School inspected the high schools at Belvidere, Marengo and Crystal Lake Tuesday. The local high school is expected to reach enrollments now possessed by those schools and the local educators sought information as to the amount of library space, study hall, class room, music department room that will be needed when the time comes. "The time is approaching when we have to make up our minds just what we shall need," said Principal Birkhead.

Mrs. Reading Writes

Olive M. Reading of Maxwell, Calif., in renewing her subscription to the Antioch News says that although she has lived in California 30 years she still finds much of interest in her home town paper.

She read with enjoyment the account of the anniversary of the Eastern Star of which she was a member from 1907 to 1920. Mayor George Bartlett was a friend of her late husband, and she remembers as a child when he came from England. She comments on the wonderful work of the Rescue squad.

Holding the Business

Surveys made in all sections of the country, by government bureaus and retail organizations and other such interested bodies, are agreed that consumers want to continue their buying at a high level, and that they are financially able to do so. However, the average consumer has become much more "price conscious."

In other words, the era when almost anything could be sold at almost any price asked is a dead dog. It is to the credit of retailing that it has done and is doing all in its power to meet consumer desires. Retail sales in most lines are only moderately down from last year. At the same time, auditors' reports from department stores, chain store systems, and other representative retail outlets, show that, generally speaking, the profit earned per dollar of sales has declined, and is just about at the rock-bottom level. The reason for it is a simple one. Alert retailers, watching the public pay critical attention to the price tags, have deliberately cut their profits in order to hold their business.

It could only happen in a free economy, where there are no limits on competition, where anyone with the resources and the desire can start a retail store. It could only happen, also, where mass distribution has been developed to a very high state of efficiency, as an essential partner of mass production. The idea, originally pioneered by the chains and since adopted by all kinds of stores, that the sound way to run a retail business is to hold unit profits to a modest level in order to encourage and maintain a big total volume of business, is a typical American innovation. It has done much to give us our present-day living standards.

Seventy Years of Life

On October 21, the 70th anniversary of Edison's incandescent lamp was celebrated. The lamp, which is so commonplace today, marked the beginning of the electric age—even as it marked the beginning of a great industry whose service has revolutionized agriculture, industry and domestic life. Today there are nearly 40,000,000 wired homes in the United States. Almost all have radios. The great majority have electric refrigerators, irons, washing machines and other labor-saving conveniences that are virtually considered necessities now—and would have seemed the wildest luxuries not long ago.

Rural electrification got its real start in 1929—a mere 20 years back. At the end of that year, the power companies had brought service to 500,000 farms. Today nine-tenths of all our farms have service available and 82 per cent are using it. In those 20 years, the average farmer has tripled his consumption of electricity—yet his annual electric bill has increased only 40 per cent. Last year, according to the Department of Commerce, electricity took less than one per cent of the average family budget—and for that tiny sum it renders miracles of service.

What built the electric industry and gave the nation light and power? The answer to that question is free enterprise. The industry is owned by some 3,000,000 Americans, most of them people of moderate means. It has physical assets worth about $20,000,000,000. It is one of the biggest taxpayers, and its rates and standards of service are regulated by state and federal commissions which represent the interests of the consumer. It can look back on 70 years of life with pride in a great job well done.

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

Some gent once said that the only law that would get his okay was one to repeal a flock of existing laws. Some of my literary friends must tell me the gent's name—I have forgotten—but he was a wise hombre, I know that.

To administer the laws of this land of the free, our nation oozes with court houses, judges, juries, lawyers. Every citizen, if he is to stay out of jail, needs a lawyer at his elbow. Even if you stay home, never venture out, you can get into trouble by just neglecting to report to the income-tax man that you received an extra buck and a half income for a bushel of apples you sold down at the store at the corner, last year.

There are laws in front of us, behind us, on all sides. In just this year in one state, California, it has something around 1600 brand new laws, the paper says. And one new law they have there is a mislabeled "Aged and blind aid" law that has since turned out as a delusion and snare—on account of the fine print nobody read at the time—and unless it is repealed the State itself will go busted and on relief. And the aged and blind, instead of being helped, will be in distress.

So, other States, if they will dust off their hearing aids and listen close, can take heed of the dire task that those Native Sons there have on their hands. Yours with the low down,

Steel Structures
A tall steel-structure building with a well-grounded metal roof—like many of our skyscrapers—is a lightning rod in itself. Such a building is struck frequently by lightning but the occupants usually are unaware of it except for a loud thunder crash.

Irrigation in Colorado

Modern irrigation began in Colorado with the arrival of the first Mexican settlers for Santa Fe almost 100 years ago. It has increased until water has been applied to about three million acres of crop and pasture lands.

Sump Pump

The sump pump is sometimes called a cellar drainer. It is a small but dependable pump which is placed in a sump or low point in the basement. It starts automatically when water in the sump reaches a certain height.

Our sincere thanks to friends, relatives and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy extended to us, also those persons who sent flowers and spiritual bouquets, and so kindly provided cars during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved wife and mother.

Helicopters to Rescue
Helicopters are now used for rescue work on land and sea; for dusting crops with chemicals against insect pests; in delivering mail, police hunts, and exploring for oil and other minerals. The "air horse" has even been used in Antarctica, flying men with U. S. navy expeditions to special inland objectives, and finding the easiest route for ice-breakers to take through the thick ice packs.

Farm Entrance

Most farm families prefer to have visitors use any door but the kitchen door. An entrance facing the driveway and a parking area for cars near the entrance will make this possible.

Sea Horse

The sea horse is not a horse, but a strange kind of fish that is so small it can be held in the hand. It is called a sea horse because of the queer shape of its head and its long snout.

Capacity, 1150 Bushels Ear Corn

12 feet six inches high and 16 feet in diameter

The 10 upright members, 40 lateral members, and 12 wire stretching angles are all 2 1/2 x 3/16 structural steel angle iron. Each joint is reinforced with 1 1/2 x 1 1/2 x 3/16 additional angle iron.

The roof is made in 20 sections of 26 gauge galvanized steel supported at each joint by 1 1/2 x 1 1/2 x 1/4 angle iron bolted to the outer frame and to a two foot loading port in center. This port is covered with a one piece 22 gauge galvanized steel cone 36 inches in diameter.

All structural members are assembled with one size bolts (3/4 x 1) thus facilitating erection. The roof sheets are attached to angle iron supports with 1/4 x 3/4 inch bolts. All parts not galvanized are painted with a zinc chromate base paint.

Instructions for assembling are included with each crib

The Rev. Robert E. Harrison will be in the pulpit every Sunday for the worship service at the Community church and will be glad to welcome you at 11 a. m. He talked to the Allendale boys at the Allendale chapel last Sunday after the worship service here.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the church basement on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2 and Mrs. Georgia Avery will lead the devotionals. The ladies are collecting waste paper which may be left at the Charles Hamlin garage, and if in your housecleaning you find that you have outgrown clothing, you may also leave it at the Hamlin garage and it will be sent to the Goodwill Industries in Chicago to help the handicapped people.

Mrs. Harrison, Sr., of Oklahoma is visiting the family of her son, Rev. R. E. Harrison at the parsonage.

The Sunday school has recently installed new screens for division of classes and the church board of education has voted to buy a slide and film strip projector.

Mrs. Daniel Sheehan passed away very suddenly at her home east of town on Monday of last week after having been shopping in Waukegan with her daughters-in-law during the afternoon. The Parent-Teacher association of the Lake Villa school held its regular meeting at the school on Monday evening, Oct. 17 with a splendid attendance, with a number of fathers present, as well as the mothers. Mrs. Anne Scisser, a teacher of a number of years experience, gave an interesting talk on the "Value of Reading." Wendy Midgley played a piano solo and Donna and Jaclyn Martin furnished piano duets. The school needs another piano and if you know of one to be had, please contact some member of the P. T. A. Refreshments were served at the close of an interesting meeting.

The various Royal Neighbor camps of Lake county met at the school gym on Friday afternoon and evening, Oct. 21, for the 28th annual convention under direction of District Deputy Gladys Ames. County Oracle Cecile Blumenschein called the meeting to order in the afternoon and State Supervisor Mrs. Lynn Edgett of LaSalle was introduced and conducted the school of instruction in which all camps of the county took part. Ray Kerr, village president, welcomed the group and County past oracle Agnes Meade responded. Head your Buick for our fountain of youth

Now's the time when Autumn calls you out for a ramble in your Buick.

Slide under the wheel and answer that call! Take a Fireball cruise through the countryside, with your heart growing lighter and the years slipping off your shoulders at each mile!

Just one reminder, though. Make sure your Buick is in top shape to keep step with you. First bring it in to us—and let us clean summer's dust out of your air filter, flush out tired summer crankcase oil with its grit and goo, check your carburetor adjustment to see that you're getting the most powerful, most economical mixture with October's cooler, heavier atmosphere.

We can do this quickly, economically, with a sure touch. Our thorough Buick training and long Buick experience in doing each job the factory-designated way have earned us a reputation—we're the "Fountain of Youth" for Buicks.

To make it easy, we've printed a Fall Check List below. Just tear this out, drive in this week and hand it to us—and when you head out for the open road there'll be a happy smile on your face!

Buick care keeps Buicks best

Tear out this check list—bring it in with your Buick

Fall Checkup—Lights, brakes, tire wear, front-end alignment, oil filter unit, battery, car heater.
Adjust—Carburetor, distributor.
Clean—Air cleaner.
Flush—Crankcase, cooling system.
Estimate—Antifreeze requirements.
ALSO—Lubricate (bumper-to-bumper lubrication and inspection).
